Mode

9 rounds of Swiss play, 90 minutes for 40 moves and 30 minutes for the remainder of the game. 30 seconds are added for each move from the first move.
The waiting time is 30 minutes in accordance with FIDE Chess Laws 6.7.1.
The starting ranking list is determined by TWZ (the higher of the two ELO and DWZ ratings). The most recently published ELO/DWZ lists apply. Participants without verifiable ELO/DWZ ratings will be ranked by the tournament director.
Players in all three Opens have the opportunity to take a one-time "bye" (draw without playing) in rounds 2 to 7. The bye is submitted to the Chief Arbiter for the second round during registration, and for rounds 3-7 by 10:00 a.m. the day before.

Entry fee

The entry fee and organization fee are €140.
(including water, apple juice, coffee, and tea during the rounds)
The entry fee and organization fee must be transferred by April 30, 2026.
An additional €10 will be added thereafter.

BIC: NOLADE21HAM

Rating

The tournament will be scored according to DWZ and ELO.
The rankings will be determined by:
1. Points
2. Buchholz Rating (according to FIDE)
3. Buchholz Total
4. Rating Performance

Prizes

The following minimum prizes are set for each tournament (see eligibility):
Main prizes:
1. place: 400 EUR , 2. place: 300 EUR , 3. place: 200 EUR
Rating prizes / special prizes:
Rating prizes and other special prizes will be awarded depending on the field of participants.
Prizes are guaranteed based on a minimum of 50 participants per tournament.
If a tournament has 70 or more participants, the top prizes increase by €100 each.
During the award ceremony, additional non-cash prizes will be raffled off among all attendees who did not win a main prize. The exact prize list will be published before the 5th round.
Participation in the awards ceremony is a prerequisite for the award of prizes – no double prizes.
